

CALIFORNIA COLLEGES AND UNIVERSITIES

CALIFORNIA POSTSECONDARY
EDUCATION COMMISSION

THIS list of California colleges and universities includes all 523 degree-granting institutions that were allowed to grant degrees as of Spring 1986, either because they were publicly supported, accredited by a recognized accrediting agency, or approved or authorized to grant degrees by the State Superintendent of Public Instruction

The institutions are listed as follows

California Community Colleges	1
The California State University	3
University of California	4
Other Public Institutions	4
Accredited Independent Institutions	4
Approved Independent Institutions	9
Authorized Independent Institutions	11

(For the difference between State approval and authorization please see the notes at the beginning of these two categories of institutions)

To obtain more information about any particular institution, please write or call the institution itself. For general information about all the institutions such as the names of their chief executive officers, their range of programs, and the level of their degree offerings, see California Colleges and Universities, 1986 the Commission's book length guide to higher education in the State (Commission Report 86-24)

For additional copies of this list of addresses and telephone numbers, please write for Commission Report 87-30 to the Publications Office of the California Postsecondary Education Commission, 1020 Twelfth Street, Third Floor, Sacramento, CA 95814-3985. For a list of California's colleges and universities grouped by county, please ask for Commission Report 87-31. For a list of California's 70 Community College districts and their colleges, please ask for Commission Report 87-32.

Further information about this list may be obtained from William K. Haldeman of the Commission staff at (916) 322-7991.

CALIFORNIA POSTSECONDARY EDUCATION COMMISSION

THE California Postsecondary Education Commission is a citizen board established in 1974 by the Legislature and Governor to coordinate the efforts of California's colleges and universities and to provide independent, non-partisan policy analysis and recommendations to the Governor and Legislature

Members of the Commission

The Commission consists of 17 members. Nine represent the general public, with three each appointed for six-year terms by the Governor, the Senate Rules Committee, and the Speaker of the Assembly. Six others represent the major segments of postsecondary education in California. Two student members will be appointed by the Governor

As of January 1992, the Commissioners representing the general public are:

Helen Z Hansen, Long Beach, Chair
Henry Der, San Francisco, Vice Chair
Mim Andelson, Los Angeles
C Thomas Dean, Long Beach
Rosalind K Goddard, Los Angeles
Mari-Luci Jaramillo, Emeryville
Lowell J. Paige, El Macero
Mike Roos, Los Angeles
Stephen P Teale, M D , Modesto

Representatives of the segments are

William T Bagley, San Francisco, appointed by the Regents of the University of California,

Joseph D Carrabino, Los Angeles, appointed by the California State Board of Education,

Timothy P Hardinger, Rancho Santa Fe, appointed by the Board of Governors of the California Community Colleges,

Ted J Saenger, San Francisco, appointed by the Trustees of the California State University, and

Harry Wugalter, Ventura, appointed by the Council for Private Postsecondary and Vocational Education

The position of representative of California's independent colleges and universities is currently vacant, as are those of the two student representatives

Functions of the Commission

The Commission is charged by the Legislature and Governor to "assure the effective utilization of public postsecondary education resources, thereby eliminating waste and unnecessary duplication, and to promote diversity, innovation, and responsiveness to student and societal needs "

To this end, the Commission conducts independent reviews of matters affecting the 2,600 institutions of postsecondary education in California, including community colleges, four-year colleges, universities, and professional and occupational schools.

As an advisory body to the Legislature and Governor, the Commission does not govern or administer any institutions, nor does it approve, authorize, or accredit any of them. Instead, it performs its specific duties of planning, evaluation, and coordination by cooperating with other State agencies and non-governmental groups that perform those other governing, administrative, and assessment functions

Operation of the Commission

The Commission holds regular meetings throughout the year at which it debates and takes action on staff studies and takes positions on proposed legislation affecting education beyond the high school in California. By law, its meetings are open to the public. Requests to speak at a meeting may be made by writing the Commission in advance or by submitting a request before the start of the meeting

The Commission's day-to-day work is carried out by its staff in Sacramento, under the guidance of its executive director, Warren H Fox, Ph D , who is appointed by the Commission

The Commission publishes and distributes without charge some 20 to 30 reports each year on major issues confronting California postsecondary education. Recent reports are listed on the back cover

Further information about the Commission and its publications may be obtained from the Commission offices at 1020 Twelfth Street, Third Floor, Sacramento, CA 98514-3985; telephone (916) 445-7933
