Release date: 12/2010

IMPORTANT NOTE: This is only one of two tests verifying a district's eligibility. If a district is highlighted in green, it meets the federal poverty requirement and may be eligible to serve as the mandated, high-need LEA partner on an ITQ proposal. The LEA must also meet the teacher qualification test in order to be eligible.

In order to qualify, at least 20% of the school age children must be living below the federal poverty line OR there must be at least 10,000 school age children living below the federal poverty line. If one of these is not true, then the district does not qualify to serve as the high-need LEA partner. No other measure, including free and reduced lunch and other measures often used, will satisfy the requirement.

As long as you have a partnership with a district that does meet the qualifications, you may also serve additional partners (even if the additional partners do not meet the qualification), but you must partner with at least one qualifying high-need LEA to be eligible to apply.
